

DECAL POSITIONS

Applying these decals correctly is part of the technical regulations and consequently, will be checked as part of the scrutineering process.

These must be located in the traditional positions ONLY and not on bonnets or splitters. If necessary, brackets must be used to mount them correctly, even in the case of air intakes to radiators and intercoolers.